QUOTES

- “The secret of a leader lies in the tests he has faced over the whole course of his life and the habit of action he develops in meeting those tests.” - Gail Sheehy
- The authority or provident care which the Society will have in regard to the general, looking always to the universal good and greater edification, will comprise six points which can help toward the glory of God our Lord [...] The second pertains to the care of his body, to prevent him from going beyond measure in labors or excessive severity. And the superior will allow himself to be restrained and will be satisfied with what the Society orders. - Const. 766,769
- Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. - Matthew 4:4
